WHY HE FAVORS COL. EMERY FOR GOVERNOR

Chelsea Voter Declares the Newport Candidate Has Proven Worth

B. H. Adams of Chelsea writes have been campin- in their cottage visited friends in St. Johnsbury last the Barre Times on the governorship situation and after discussing somewhat belody the other candidates has this to say of his old friend, Col. C. S. Emery:

Mi. Emery is another candidate and one who is not and never was a Frel Benware motored to Wil- manufacturer. He was been on a with a gold spoon, but came up like Mrs. Clara Conant of Morrisville other farmer have of his time. He is being entertained by her brother, therefore knows the conditions of farm life and how a farmer I'ves. As M. and Mrs. Harry Marshall re- he has always fixed in Vermont he cently entertained friends from knows their needs and the needs of the state in general. He worked his way from the farm to bank ca hier. his reaper and is doing alonty of then everal times represented his town in the legislature, then as sen home town and county had for him. Never did be betray their confidence, but every time was an honor to his constituents, always to be depended upon. When once he took a stand. they knew where to find him and his ability always could to the occasion. Perhaps he has not accumulated so great a bank account as either of his opponents, but a man should not be measured by his money. Money is n nice thing to have. We all need it to a certain extent, but the man, the real man, is what we should look at, and if we will all do this, Mr. Emery or his friends need no worry, for with all respect to his opponent., I believe there is not a cleaner man in the state of Vermont today than Curtis S. Emery, I have known him as well as I know any man. I know he is a man and a live man and always has been, and every time he has tried he has proved himself worth; were it on the farm, in the bank, in the House of Representatives, in the Senate or as mayor, He tells you, Mr. Voter, what he stands for and if elected he will give the state the best there is in him, but that he cannot, and would not if he could, buy the office, which I believe is true. elected, it is his desire that it be be> cause of your confidence in him. Now, Mr. Voter, when we murk our ballots on Sept. 4, let's show the world that the office of governor of governor of Vermont is not for : ale at auction or to a man who can and will spend the most money to obtain the nomination. Think of the man and not the money or the pictures on the fences. If we all do that, we will have for governor the next two years a man of whom we will all be justly proud and he will sign his name, Curtis S. Emery.

Agan and Skeels Speak at Lyndonville

Candidate Frank W. Agan and Judge Homer L. Skeels, both Luciow, continued their speaking campaign in the north country Thursday night, sneaking before fair authence in Music hall at Lyndonville. The speakers were introduced by George H. Davis and were well eccived by the audience. Judge Skeels spoke briefly upon the duties of voters in the pre ent campaiga, urging all to inform themselves as to the issues and the principle that the various candidates represent. Frank W. Agan was the principal speaker and re-iterated his position on the 18th amendment and the en forcement of the Volstead act. Hi audience seemed particularly inter of changing th and policy of the state. He make somewhat at length on the agricultural needs of Vermont and the needsity of giving the farmers all the help 59 tf | titude towards the Vail school taken that might be detrimental to the interests of the school and the future farmers of Vermont
